

CENTRAL CARPET PYTHON FACT SHEET

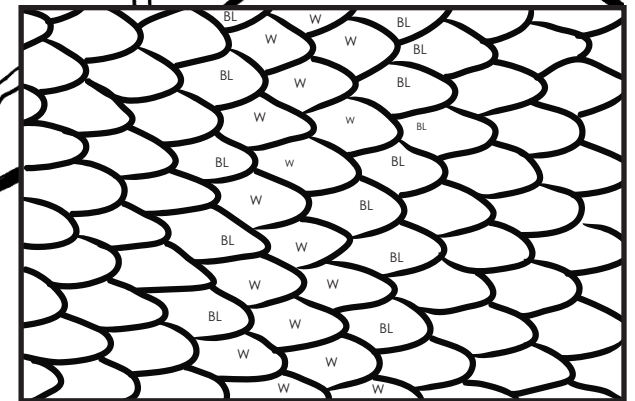

- Carpet Pythons are native to Australia and New Guinea.
- Feeds on frogs, lizards, birds, and mammals. They trap the prey until it suffocates.
- Most Carpet Pythons are olive green, with pale dark edged blotches. The youths are often shades of brown.
- They can live 15-20 years.
- There are six types including; Jungle Carpets, Coastal or Queensland Carpets and Irian Jaya Carpets.
- They can range in size from 5-9 feet.

Carpet Python Habitat
(shaded area)

Carpet Python

Close-Up of the scales, color the unmarked scales brown, and the ones marked BL (black) and W (leave white or make a light cream color)